

Posted on Thu, Jun. 29, 2006

Pay of new CEO at El Camino Hospital disclosed

RELEASE IS REVERSAL FOR THE NON-PROFIT

By S.L. Wykes

San Jose Mercury News

El Camino Hospital in Mountain View has a new chief executive -- one who will be paid a higher base salary than his predecessor but may end up with a lower overall compensation package.

The release of that salary information represents a turnaround for the hospital district's board, which oversees the non-profit 395-bed hospital.